Deep Red

Apoptygma Berzerk

Deep red is bluring my eyes
I made a new clash, dare till to lie
I want you to explain your feelings for me
You bleed on your skin, it's what makes me feel I will wait for you to scream and shout, but you open your mouth and blood runs out.You open your mouth and blood runs out.The knife cuts through her skin and your heart starts beating faster You feel the pressure within as you look into her eyesDidn't see him. Didn't see his face. Didn't see his body
