The Worst Things Beautiful

Ours

On the day you were born, the sun filled my eyes
I fell within the wars that rise
What were you here for? And what will you find?
Could I save your life like you saved mine?Wait till the morning comes around
Wait for something beautiful
Wait, see if worry turns around
Wait, please waitAll but love will leave you wantingI tried to keep you from everything that was
So difficult for me
But it makes you strong, when you hurt so long
Put it all in faith, that you won't leaveWait till the morning comes around
Wait for something beautiful
Wait, see if worry turns around
Wait, please waitLooking up, now you see that everyone seems so happy
The crooked somehow keep breathing
When you couldn't be so happy
Maybe they just don't know, maybe we just don't knowSo I'll wake every moment, wake with the sun
Were the worst things always the first things to come?
Find a way to move on and a way to be strong
Cause somethings do change
Well, somethings come and made the worst things beautifulWait till the morning comes around
Wait for something beautiful
Wait, see if worry turns around
Wait, please wait
