

Away

Nightwish

The days were brighter
Gardens more blooming
The nights had more hope
In their silenceThe wild was calling
Wishes were whispering
The time was there
But without a meaningAway, away in time
Every dream's a journey away
Away to a home away from care
Everywhere's just a journey awayThe days departed
Gardens deserted
This frail world
My only rest ?The wild calls no more
Wishes so hollow
The barefoot boy
Weeping in an empty nightAwayCherish the moment
Tower the skies
Don't let the dreamer
Fade to gray like grassNo falling for life
A gain for every loss
Time gathered me
But kept me flyingFor this gift of dream, I must pay the price
With the loss of life's pleasures
