

Rescue Me

Tokio Hotel

This used to be our secret
Now, I'm hiding here alone
Can't help but read our names on the wall
And wash them off the stone I trusted you in every way
But not enough to make you stay
Turn around
I've lost my ground Come and rescue me
I am burning can't you see?
Come and rescue me
Only you can set me free Come and rescue me
Rescue me, rescue me We lied when we were dreaming
Our crying was just fake
I wish you could deny it
Here and today My S.O.S on radio
The only chance to let you know
What I feel
Can you hear? Come and rescue me
I am burning can't you see?
Come and rescue me
Only you can set me free Come and rescue
Rescue me, you and me
You and me, you and me The walls are coming closer
My senses fade away
I'm haunted by your shadow
I reached to feel your faith
Your not here, are you here? Come and rescue me
Rescue me
Come and rescue me
I'm burning can't you see? Come and rescue me
Only you can set me free
Come and rescue me
Rescue me You and me, you and me
Rescue me, you and me
Set me free, rescue me
