

The Most Beautiful Things

Jimmy Eat World

You say the most beautiful things
An endless list of treasures of trimmings
It takes all my faith just to start I don't care now how much I'm wrong
My song it shames your ears
Every sentence a failure Slant rhyme is all I can give Half truth is all I'll get
Show us all what grace can mean
All of what I might be Close your eyes, call it escape
We'll run away from everything
Lie to me, love me
We'll run away from everything
