You Don't Know Me

City High

You dont know me, they dont know me
Yall dont know me so dont try to judge me
'Cause Im hard headed, I dont wanna listen
Experience is my teacher, thats how Im gonna live my lifeNow lately it seems as though you're actin like you're someone else
And the way it used to be you could come to me and tell me what you felt
Now I heard they say what you see is what you get
But that aint always a fact
But if you turned me inside out I think that youd gain a new respectYou dont know me, they dont know me
Yall dont know me so dont try to judge me
'Cause Im hard headed I dont wanna listen
Experience is my teacher, thats how Im gonna live my lifeSeems like everybody knows my mind better than I know my own
Always questionin' the things that I do I wish yall leave me alone
I may hang out and drink a lot but thats just how I get down
If I listen to you and him or her Id never get my feet off of the groundYou dont know me, they dont know me
Yall dont know me so dont try to judge me
'Cause Im hard headed, I dont wanna listen
Experience is my teacher, thats how Im gonna live my lifeYou think you know me but you don't
You think you know me but you won'tYou dont know me, they dont know me
Yall dont know me so dont try to judge me
'Cause Im hard headed, I dont wanna listen
Experience is my teacher, thats how Im gonna live my lifeYou dont know me, they dont know me
Yall dont know me so dont try to judge me
'Cause Im hard headed, I dont wanna listen
Experience is my teacher, thats how Im gonna live my lifeYou dont know me, they dont know me
Yall dont know me so dont try to judge me
'Cause Im hard headed, I dont wanna listen
Experience is my teacher, thats how Im gonna live my life
