

Bound to Come

Susperia

There was a time you wouldn't just walk away

That's long past now

There was a time you told me to stay

Been long since I heard you say

I need you to stay

Don't walk awayThese times are lost but remembered

They went away with the wind

In fact I needed them to go

To stay alive and be sane

The more I think of the future

The past remains in my life

the lies, the fight that we had

Was bound to come anywayIt's been awhile since you and I shared a word

I wonder why

There was a time you could look in my eyes

I didn't need to beg you just to stay

I need you to say

Don't walk awayThese times are lost but remembered

They went away with the wind

In fact I needed them to go

To stay alive and be sane

The more I think of the future

The past remains in my life

the lies, the fight that we had

Was bound to come anyway
