He's A Liquid

John Foxx

He's an angle
She's a tangent
There's some flowers on the bathroom floor
He's a clicktrack
Now she makes a flashbackHe's a liquidHe's a laugh
She's a graph
He wears a sticky white shirt and tie
In those viscous clothes
His watch hand glowsHe's a liquidShe's elusive
He's adhesive
He's a trickle down a falling wall
They get married too much
She's a soft touchHe's a liquidHe pulls
She pushed
They read The Bible about the flood
She draws the curtains
'cause now she's certainHe's a liquid
