

Smile (feat. Rico Love)

Plies

I just wanna see you smile
You always got your mouth poked out about something but you know I know how to make bae smile tho wanna keep them perms in your hair and put them heels on your feet put that furniture in your house and put that leather on your seat bring you oxtails to work just to make sure you eat and keep money in your pocket when you don't get paid that week just wanna see you smile so tired of seeing you cry you work hard I'm sick of seeing you tired send you to the chinese people so they can paint your nails give your cousin a couple hundred dollars for doing your hair when you happy baby I'm happy when you sad it hurts
I love to see you smile looking like you came out of church
I came by your house late it was 3 in the morning all i can say we had us one hell of morning And sometimes I know you need somebody to stay around to make you smile and baby I aint scared to be that somebody to stay around to make you smile I'm gon be holding you down You'll need somebody, wanna be that somebody
you'll need somebody, wanna be that somebody
you'll need somebody, wanna be that somebody
I love being around you every time you fall asleep
Love rubbing on your back so you know that its me
You my backbone and i'm the one that hold you up
All that other shit can wait when you wanna get cuffed shit yo mama know my mama which mean its legit I don't had my share of women nothing close to this
You got a real nigga thinking bout jumping the broom
I was just playing calm down all that might be too soon I'm trying to free you of your pain put joy in your eyes i know i said this shit before but bae i mean it this time You deserve the best and how I feel i deserve the same you deserve a real nigga and i deserve a queen
