

Bounce

Slick Shoes

You're stuck where you fell
Your past comes back to haunt you
Things you thought you'd learned again and again
Didn't fit well inside your head
The victim of a crime of the mind
To heal, it will take more than time
All I can do is pray that you would feel
More like you did yesterday
They don't know you like I do
They never even tried to
They don't know you like I do
They never even tried to
You're misunderstood, you're feeling all left out
I see the terrible norm is tearing you apart
Now what can you do? It's time to face the truth
That life is just a tour and you're along for the ride
