Awakening

Nocturnal Rites

AwakeningI'll end my journey here
Because time and tide it waits for no man
There's something strange in me
I see the things that should not be
It's all a mindless game
Trapped inside the walls I built
Try to pull them down
But something stops meThen the feeling comes alive
I can't hold it any more
Enemy... Is it youEnd of the line, walking alone
In this world of my own
Demons of guilt, battle to win
This is my awakening
