Shy Of The Cool

Jls

i cant believe, finally,
shes tryna break out of her shell
She adimant, to achieve
Her worlds her oyster
you would never tell
When shes so friendly. So unsuspected
This girl can walk around School and be respected
Her expression a smile not a frown
Goes home and its upside down
Walks through the door this little miss creeping
On the side will get her beating
Why oh whys this girl still weeping
Cant say nuttin no cos he feels she cheatin
Shes just a few degrees shy of the cool
Gotta change those rules, yeah (x2)
Verse 2..
I'll find away, is what you said
Those words still rotates in my head
I sit there, thinking, i can turn this around
What ya gonna do when the hurt

Turns physical
Sendin u a message when its so subliminal, positions so hard to get out, JLS here to break it down.
When you gotta step up, believe your devotions, to the cause you'll be fully rewarded.
Walk around with a smile not a frown, JLS here to break it downnnnn.
Chorus:
She's just a few degrees shy of the cool, gotta change the rules, yeah. (gotta change those rules)
She's just a few degrees shy of the cool, gotta change the rules, yeah.
Inside he's dying, this guy can't stop crying, all his hurt and lying. Cause he's shying away.
He's really trying, he's worried about the timing, all his hurt and lying. Cause he's shying away.
You don't understand why I'm the way I am, wanna tell you but I can't (I wanna tell you but I can't)

It's hard enough being the man, still I'll do what I can, guess that's the way I am, I am. (shy of the cooooooool) She's just a few degrees shy of the cool, gotta change the rules, yeah.
