Alborosie

Wowoooo

People sittin' in our church
Tryin' to fix all their vibe ways
But their eyes are not so synchronized
With the style of this new days
People sittin' on the porch here
Leaders of dismotivation
While they're sittin tight we're loosin' form
In this bloody revolution
Police walking round the city
Playin' the Babylon game
Troublin' the youths
Chance for above
While the weekend starts to be blamed
People play games,
People go rude
Turning the world up side down
Them say ABC, they do XYE
Them lying to you, lying to me
People play games,
People go rude
Turnin the world up side down
Them lying to you, lying to me
People don't want, want to be free.
People planning mass distruction
And where some place another bomb
Will they ever stop this great non sense
Is the same old song
People disrespecting each other
For what reason, I don't know
Cause we're to closer, maybe far away
Cause we never chose our faith
Police walking round the city
Playin' the Babylon game
Troublin' the youths
Chance for above
While the weekend starts to be blamed.
People play games,
People go rude

Turning the world up side down
Them say ABC, they do XYE
Them lying to you, lying to me
People play games,
People go rude
Turnin the world up side down
Them lying to you, lying to me
People don't want, want to be free.
People don't wanna, don't wanna be free
People don't wanna be.
People don't wanna, don't wanna be free
People don't wanna be.
People don't wanna, don't wanna be free
People don't wanna be.
People don't wanna, don't wanna be free
People don't wanna be.
People, they don't wanna be
(Oh, no)
They don't wanna be free
(They don't wanna be free)
People, they don't wanna be
(Oh, no)
They don't wanna be free
People, they don't wanna be
(Oh, no)
They don't wanna be free
(They don't wanna be free)
People, they don't wanna be
They don't wanna be free.
People sittin' in our church
Tryin' to fix all their vibe ways
But their eyes are not so synchronized
With the style of this new days
People sittin' on the porch here
Leaders of dismotivation
While they're sittin tight we're loosin' form

People play games,
People go rude
Turning the world up side down

Them lying to you, lying to me
People don't want, want to be free.
