

Stealing Candy From A Baby (Demo)

Porcelain Black

No fun if there is no chase
You throw yourself in my face
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby
With you I don't have to try
You get no love
So bye bye
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby
My baby boy be hitting blunts
Yeah he bad
He take a hit
He take a swig
Then he pass
Swag it
Cause it
In the street
I'd like to see what happens
If you two meet
Cause you're a push over
You ain't no super nova
Just give it up and leave me
Leave me alone
No fun if there is no chase
You throw yourself in my face
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby
With you I don't have to try
You get no love
So bye bye
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby
I like it hot
And you're mild
Can't tame a beast from the wild
A beast from the wild
No fun if there is no chase
You throw yourself in my face
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby
Eminem he got that great
Got that dirt
His words are dinner
And his rhymes are dessert
He'll chew you up
And spit you out like a ho
So that's the cue
Now please just fucking go
Cause you're a hang onna
You ain't no balla balla

Just give it up and leave me
Leave me alone No fun if there is no chase
You throw yourself in my face
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby
With you I don't have to try
You get no love
So bye bye
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby I like it hot
And you're mild
Can't tame a beast from the wild
A beast from the wild
No fun if there is no chase
You throw yourself in my face
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby No fun if there is no chase
You throw yourself in my face
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby
With you I don't have to try
You get no love
So bye bye
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby No fun if there is no chase
You throw yourself in my face
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby
With you I don't have to try
You get no love
So bye bye
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby I like it hot
And you're mild
Can't tame a beast from the wild
A beast from the wild
No fun if there is no chase
You throw yourself in my face
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby
