I Keep Callin'

Babyface

Baby baby baby, ain't gon' lie to you
Girl, you made a big mistake, yes, you did
Now I'm going crazy crazy crazy
'Cause I am thinking 'bout you night and day
I keep callin' your name
'Cause it just ain't the same
Can't get you outta my head
Things start chasin' you back
I keep hoping someday
You'll come running my way, where are you baby
Are you comin' comin' back to me?
Are you comin' home?
What was I thinking of?
Disrespecting your love, must've been the fool in me
No I never meant to hurt you, no I never Never meant to desert you, should've never
Now I'm all alone and I'm so sorry sorry sorry
I keep callin' your name
'Cause it just ain't the same
Can't get you outta my head
Things start chasin' you back
I keep hoping someday
You'll come running my way, where are you baby
Are you comin' comin' back to me?
Are you comin' home?
A man's only hope, when he's got a woman to call his own
Imagine how I feel without you baby
I can be myself
I keep wishin' I was someone else
Then I'm bein' here without you
Callin' your name
'Cause it just ain't the same
Can't get you outta my head
Things start chasin' you back
I keep hoping someday
You'll come running my way, where are you baby
Are you comin' comin' back to me?
Are you comin' home?
I keep callin' your name

'Cause it just ain't the same
Can't get you outta my head
Things start chasin' you back
I keep hoping someday
You'll come running my way, where are you baby
Are you comin' comin' back to me?
Are you comin' home?
Ohh baby, yeah
Can't get you outta my head
Things start chasin' you back
