Trouble

Bonnie Mckee

Ah yes
I remember too well
How hard
I tried avoiding your spell
It was a cold October night
It was a far from sober night
And I was taken at first sight
And this was much to your delight
I'd heard that you were looking for prey
Hungry for a different girl everyday
But you were so sly in coming in I wouldn't fight, I let you win
All of the blood upon your chin told me exactly where you'd been
Trouble trouble
Troublemaker
Who would have thought I'd ever let somebody get to me
Who would have thought I'd ever give a damn
I gave to you the one thing that I can never retrieve
And I am leaving my heart bleeding in my hands
You told me all about your dreams
You were so deep, or so it seemed
Although I'm young, I'm not naive
I am not easy to deceive
I see the danger that lies beyond your eyes
And I wanna scream when you're rubbing on my thighs
I know I should but I can't say no, I won't
Troublemaker, gotta let you go, ooh
Trouble trouble
Troublemaker
Who woulda thought I'd ever let somebody get to me
Who woulda thought I'd ever give a damn
I gave to you the one thing that I can never retrieve
And you're leaving my heart bleeding in my hands
I thought I knew you well
I thought you'd catch me if I fell
But when I fell you never came
That's when I knew this was a game
I thought, because I knew that I'd won
But honey, that's easier said than done
'Cause I lose my breath when you're kissin' on my neck

Boy, you've got me in check, but I haven't lost yet
Trouble trouble
Trouble trouble
Troublemaker troublemaker
Don't you bring it 'round
Don't you bring it 'round
Don't you bring it 'round here
Trouble trouble
Trouble trouble
