Ten Toes Down

TeRae

Dont ask me by nobody you dont see me with.
Cause people fall and they will crush you like a crucifix.
and yeah i am strong but I swear I'm not immune to this, ADVERTISING
i thought you was real and you played off my ignorance see, i did't see it coming i did't even feel the change We was both writing our stories Thought we was on the same page they could't tell me nothing about you ask the rumors let them hate ride with you though whatever to you make me pump the brake now i got a question where your loyalties lie like, how you gonna do something to makr your bestfriend cry you brotugh something in me that day i had to ask the lord why why are my home and don't stay sorry why they falling off the top i didt deserve it i thought i kept it one k i was her biggest fan i wanted her to win in ever way. yeah you know that lord you know its ture i pray for her every single time that i pray to you after she sat me in the back we fell of and boucnce back.
