

If I Were A Terrorist (i'd Bomb Your Graduation)

Something Corporate

She's out of school again
But she won't be calling from where she is going the lines are jammed this time what could a girl like her need with a slacker like me
If I were a terrorist
I'd bomb you're graduation
If I were a terrorist
there'd be no hesitation
So I'm going on tour with the band
She said "stay for the summer" but she don't understand That the radio plays what they want you to hear and I want them to play you your love song this year
If I were a terrorist
I'd bomb you're graduation
If I were a terrorist
there'd be no hesitation
The cameras are flashing
Her black robe is passing and there I am chilled to my bones
This is the year my girlfriends leaving home She'll probably end up with a frat guy She'll probably get pinned while I sleep in the van I'm sure she'll be home for thanksgiving I'll send her a picture of me making out with a fan.... And.....
If I were a terrorist
I'd bomb you're graduation
If I were a terrorist
there'd be no hesitation
The cameras are flashing
Her black robe is passing
and there I am chilled to my bones
This is the year my girlfriends leaving
this is the year my girlfriends leaving
this is the year my girlfriends leaving home

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>