Remark

Plasm

everybody's trying to mend a broken heart buy a little bit of love and try to start sew your secrets up with cotton and with string teach each other little recipies and things to say
i'm not like that it's not like that i don't hurt like they do but, oh, you're like that yes you're like that
yes, you need somebody too we put on navy suits and march and keep in line and laugh at all the silly people out of time we count the minutes 'till we heal it with our... we climb in bed with pretty strangers and we cry oh oh oh
i'm not like that
i don't want to hurt like they do they find it hard to be alone like everyone else that we know and when our heads hurt in the dark we look for beautiful remarks we find it hard to be alone

we get our heads hurt in the dark we need some beautiful remarks (yes we do)
we hang up photographs of people that we love and when we glance at them think 'well that's enough' but when our mothers call we're busy doing stuff we'll get back to them when things start clearing up oh oh oh
i'm not like that

but it's not like that yes, it's like that
you're just like that yeah, it's just like that yeah, you need somebody too oh, you're like that
