

So Much Better

Aubrey Wood

I'd like to think of you as someone like me,
But so much better.
Your morals haunt me,
But honestly I can call you my savior.
Would you be so blunt so we can get on
And never have to go back
where we started from.

I'd like to think of you as someone like me,
But so much better.It's a little bit tough
But I know I'm gonna reach it.
Never gonna stop till I'm gonna get it.
Don't let me lost faith,
Never let go of my hand,
Cause it's you only
That understands.I'd like to think of you as supernatural
Just like a hero.

So would you mind if I called you my own
And never let you go?
Won't you come to save me just once more
Just to prove to me
You're the reason I stopped fighting for?
I'd like to think of you as someone like me,
But so much better.It's a little bit tough
But I know I'm gonna reach it.
Never gonna stop till I'm gonna get it.
Don't let me lost faith,
Never let go of my hand,
Cause it's you only
That understands.
It's a little bit tough
But I know I'm gonna reach it.
Never gonna stop till I'm gonna get it.
Don't let me lost faith,
Never let go of my hand,
Cause it's you only
That understands.
