

Heavy Lies the Crown

Solution .45

At all hours of the day and night,
We are one (we are one) Lost between here and forever
Far away from time and space
In a dream of now and never,
I awake No source in sight
The world is a vortex
A ten-ton weight of nothing
Black hole incarnate
Turn the edge of fear
Final goodbye?
Heavy lies the crown
Wound to heal the breach
Seen with the mind's eye
Heavy lies the crown Gone through fire and water for a relief
Self-medicate of darkly meditate
Those dark clouds over your head
Frustration, anger and hatred
You know them so well by now
