Good Respiration

Stampead

hey you best take a break now all and all itâ€™s good respiration so sleep like the dead and wake up lovely sing a song about the morning sing it till the sun goes down now I puff before I sleep try to think things through I never meant for my skin to fall on you you brought life to my imagination and now the dream is gone

Iâ€™m a box of germs unopened my red flag sinking in the sea my steamboat sheâ€™s going down saying â€œone more puff, will you die with meâ€• cuz all and all itâ€™s good respiration believe me, believe me
