

So Beautiful

Superchick

We are a thousand voices strong
We are each girl who sings this song
We are a beauty that's our own and we are, and we are
So Beautiful

We are light, we were born beautiful
We were meant to be more than these shadows of girls
They cut us down to size, afraid we'll change the world
But we'll fight for your right to be beautiful girls
If every girl could see her beauty, we would be an army
We are a thousand voices strong
We are each girl who sings this song
We are a beauty that's our own
and we are, and we are
So Beautiful
and we are, and we are
So Beautiful (x2)

We have dreams we were born to fulfill
We were meant to be more than just fairytale girls
We are colors so bright, each a beautiful girl
We are stars in the night, and we're changing the world
When every girl can see her beauty, we will be an army
We are thousand voices strong
We are each girl who sings this song
We are a beauty that's our own
and we are, and we are
So Beautiful
So Beautiful
So Beautiful

We are a thousand voices strong (repeat)
We are each girl who sings this song (repeat)
We are a beauty that's our own
and we are, and we are
So Beautiful
(REPEAT)
(So Beautiful - x2)
