Forgive Me

Faktion

Concentrating on my knees
Cause they're no help to me
I find myself with simple questions
And simple needs
Bleeding forces gather me
Undo my weakness and appease
My sadness and guilt
Of what was done for me
I'll know what you are
The light in the dark
And I'll see what you are
Forgive me
And I'll take what you are
Over again
I'll need nothing more

Take me Many voices speak Many times I am weak Many things escape It's part of me Many chances that I take To kill you again It should've been me And everyone Take me See who you are Know who you are See who you are Take me Take me Forgive me
