Chin Up

Catch 22

Close your eyes real tight underneath the city lights
And you can't hear the noise below your room
Take a real deep breath and get those feelings off your chest
Work it out and wake up in each other's armsUnderneath it's never over
(Looking back over my shoulder)
Looking back over my shoulder
(Underneath it's never over)
We always said that we would meet again
When we were ten years olderI hadn't thought about her in a while
Until she showed up in a dream I had lying listless in a bed
With a string of broken hearts hanging from her finger
I said, Let's take a drive with a pack of Camel lights
Into the middle of nowhere and talk about our lives"And here me say, Listen up, silence, can't let it go, got to get it out"
Listen up, silence, can't let it go, got to get it out
Chin up, chin up until it touches the moon
Sad and forsaken one, it's you I'm talking toYou can't take it back
(No)
You can't take it back
(No)
This bullshit I took it and crushed it and painted it black
I swallowed the match, it's burning up my insidesSo listen up, silence, can't let it go, got to get it out
Listen up, silence, can't let it go, got to get it out
Chin up, chin up until it touches the moon
Sad and forsaken one, it's you I'm talking to, goClose your eyes real tight underneath the city lights
And you can't hear the noise below your room
Take a real deep breath and get those feelings off your chest
Work it out and wake up in each other's armsUnderneath it's never over
(Looking back over my shoulder)
Looking back over my shoulder
(Underneath it's never over)
We always said that we would meet again
When we were ten years olderListen up, silence, can't let it go, got to get it out
Listen up, silence, can't let it go, got to get it out
Listen up, silence, can't let it go, got to get it out
Listen up, silence, can't let it go, got to get it out
Chin up, chin up until it touches the moon
Sad and forsaken one, ooh, it's you I'm talking to
