Life in Velvet

Between the Buried and Me

Fresh air grips me, rolling hills unfurl
The smell of the living awakens all I am
Lift my limbs to focus, beauty is in sight
The hours I cherished are now falseMy last exhale leaves purple smoke
Knees crashed down on, on velvet ropesMy last exhale leaves purple smoke
Knees crashed down on, on velvet ropesMy last exhale leaves purple smoke
Knees crashed down on, on velvet ropesMy last exhale leaves purple smoke
Knees crashed down on, on velvet ropesDark worlds engrossing
Our sun is sleeping
Dark worlds engrossing
Our sun is sleeping
