Broken & Beautiful

Kate Alexa

You fall apart and I run in from anywhere
Like cameras at an accident
Staring eyes I wonder why I care
Maybe Ill be frightened by the pain
But watch your tragedy againChorus
Cause you are broken and beautiful
And youre so damn cynical
But Im drawn in by the darkness in your eyes
And its beautiful
Broken and beautifulTalkin you down from ledges to stay with me
Ill touch your sharpest edges
Ill be the one who holds your hand when you bleed
Falling off in pieces like you do
I would hand them back to youCause you are broken and beautiful
And youre so damn cynical
But Im drawn in by the darkness in your eyes
And its beautifulMy favourite mess like a magnet pulling me down until I drown
Call me obsessed with your sadness but I dont want to make it stopCause you are broken and beautiful
And youre so damn cynical
But Im drawn in by the darkness in your eyes
And its beautifulBroken and beautiful
And youre not like usual
but Im drawn in by the darkness in your eyes
And its beautiful
Broken and beautiful
