

Moon and Back

Alice Kristiansen

I'm talkin' in circles can't get out of my head i cry at commercials and i never make the bed and i'm pulling your last thread
when i'm comin' unraveled baby to the moon, and back you still love me more than that when my skies are grey and my whole world is shakin'
to the moon, and back you love me more than that when you go quiet and won't let your guard down i hear through the silence that you're tryin' to figure it out you're tryin' to make me proud believe me nowbaby to the moon, and back i still love you more than that when your skies are grey and your whole world is shakin'
i love you more than that we may fall but we'll keep on going we may break but we won't say broken through the cracks
in the road
the flowers grow before you see our storm clouds formin' and the sun don't rise in the mornin' you should know
i will love you more than that
and your world is shakin'

i love you more than that
