In the Silence

Spoken

i hold your picture in my hand, your beauty portrayed so well, your eyes so precious, you're so beautiful, you're an angel from heaven, here beside me.
in the silence of the night i hear,
angels voices, singing your name, ho how beautiful is your name, as they sing, over and over again.
just the touch of your hand in mine, chills overcome me,
past love is left behind,
your love has found me.
in the silence of the night i hear,
angels voices, singing your name,
oh how beautiful is your name, as they sing, your name, over and over again.
they sing your name, over and over again.
