Homecoming Queen

Agent 51

Kelly's got a problem yeah she's dyin' every day
She sits all by herself and hope that it will go away
She's got everything a girl could want
Got money and a car
When your mind is sickly spinning
It won't get you very far
Sleeping pills and alcohol
One more time she'll take a fall
Sleeping pills and alcohol, gonna have a ball
Everybody cries for the Homecoming Queen
Everybody cries for the Homecoming Queen
You've got high school popularity defining
Your self worth
But it doesn't really matter when they sink you in the dirt
When Jesse lost his will to live
They said it was a shame
But when Kelly drains her artery
It'll rocket her to fame
Get escape - is what you need
Someone planted on jealousy
Get escape - is what you need
Slit your wrists and watch 'em bleed
