

Burning at Both Ends

Cauldron

Lost in the battlefield
A soul that can not yield
Head first into the fray
With no plan for steps to take
Taken under the spell
Continue to compel
Too many moves to make
Never stop or you will break(Solo)Don't know the road that leads Accelerate with speed
Knowing no guarantee
Pleasure of the greatest tease
Fear of not keeping pace
Someone will take your place
Burn fast, fall behind
Never one with fleeting time
Burning both ends
Constant redeeming
No time to mend
Losing all feeling
Burning both ends
No longer dreaming
The future descendsLosing all meaningUnder the hill we go
Too fast, no time to slow
The signs of long ago
Ignore the pattern far below
Final appeal is lost
Reveal the final cost
Knowing no expertise
Never stop or you will cease
Your time was spent, there's no repent
Ignoring the signs in the endBurning both ends
Constant redeeming
No time to mend
Losing all feeling
Burning both ends
No longer dreaming
The future descends(Losing the life at the end)(Solo)Lost in the battlefield
This soul that can not yield
Still down and out of place

Never know your own disgrace
Steady under the spell
Continue to compel
Too late to turn away
Forever lost and led astray Burning both ends
Constant redeeming
No time to mend
Losing all feeling
Burning both ends
No longer dreaming
The future descends (Losing your life in the end) Burning both ends
