

The Tongue Avoids the Teeth

Tom Vek

The tongue avoids the teeth on a daily basis
The lungs stay clean, breathing all the smoke
The finger stays uncut, as it tests the blade
The eyes stay closed, looking at the sunNo time for an existential crisis
I just can't provide any answers for this
I'm a nervous man, in awe of everything
I'm an awesome manThe tongue avoids the teeth
The tongue avoids the teeth
The tongue avoids the teeth
The tongue avoids the teeth
