

I've Got the Fire

Iron Maiden

(Ronnie Montrose)

(Original by Montrose, on album Paper Money) If you're looking for someone that you can keep then, baby, pass me by

And if you wanted something that's twenty years deep

Baby, don't even try

And if you wanted someone to take your soul

I'll lift you up little bit higher I've got the fire

I've got the fire SOLO So you think I'm skinny, don't you sell me cheap

I'm as wide as a country-mile

Some like it wide, I like it deep

Guess which one is my style

So you think you can beat me by my own game

Maybe I call you a liar I've got the fire

I've got the fire
