Semiotic Love

Blaqk Audio

I will ask you this, can you spare a kiss?
Can you picture this coming from my lips?
I'll whisper from miles awayI will send you this and seal it with a kiss
Can you take this lipstick
And light play and carry it miles away?I will walk across the ocean
To where the sky meets the sea
And give this ghost my devotion
To keep you from meJust say goodbye, I'll live and I'll die
Hooked on a star, enraptured by the sky
In love with a satelliteI can now admit I'm lost in loveliness
Who could just resist this distant beauty?
Find me if you find a wayYou may love it if you tried this detachment
From this distance the beauty burns brightly
It's warmer from worlds awayJust say goodbye, I'll live and I'll die
Hooked on a star, enraptured by the sky
In love with a satelliteI'll stare forever and love whatever breaks my heart, oh, oh, oh
I'll stare forever and love whatever breaks my heart, oh, oh, ohJust say goodbye, I'll live and I'll die
Hooked on a star, enraptured by the sky, ohJust say goodbye, I'll live and I'll die
Hooked on a star, enraptured by the sky
In love with a satelliteJust say goodbye, I'll live and I'll die
Hooked on a star, enraptured by the sky
In love with a satellite
