

Fading

Andy Ferguson

Little bit of something could i, little bit of something should i, try ,try Little bit of memory , your sweet embrace, i fit perfectly im, fine , fine Little bit of happiness, and what we had of peaceful bliss will, fly , fly Little bit of summer's kiss, now autumns leaves they tear and twist and, shy, shy Little bit of someone, wish you'd hurt so bad, how hard i miss you, cry, cry Take this hand and follow me, we step outside, the stars they sing goodnight, night*Bridge
I know we were moving way too fast, i was hoping this would last and i shudder when i think, how this could end up differently Im not so good at taking it slow, my friends will all say told you so but i dont care what they say, cuz all i wanna do is be your baby .Little bit of solitude, i sleep away the afternoon go bye, bye Little bit of emptiness, my soul i speaks through all of this dont lie, lie Secretly i turn from you, my eyes they shine, my heart will bruise and die, die
