Nothing Left to Hide

Hot Chelle Rae

Kiss me I taste him on your lips Touch me he's on your fingertips Don't say that you were with your friends
Your eyes lie and I'm staring into him again
I see the faces that you've seen Kills me the way it used to be I know that places that you've been
Your eyes lie and I'm staring into him again

When you feel the way I feel inside you know that everything won't be alright in the end
the end of the night
and when the whole damn city knows your name
and you know that everyone figured out your game You're exposed
The darkness changed to light

The beast waits in the shadows alone why stay here when your not coming home tongue in check you've perfected the art I've become the animal waiting in the dark words dance a jester for her king you say love but i don't feel a thing space goes as far as i can see I'm the animal you're the enemy

When you feel the way i feel inside
you know that everything won't be alright in the end
the end of the night
and when the whole damn city knows your name
and you know that everyone figured out your game
You're exposed

When you feel the way I feel inside
you know that everything won't be alright in the end
the end of the night
and when the whole damn city knows your name

and you know that everyone figured out your game
You're exposed

when the darkness changed to light
and when the whole damn city knows your name

When you got nothing left to hide to hide
When the darkness changed to light
