Walk On By

Gareth Gates

I'm coming down with a heartache tonight.
Only you can make it right
If I can't be with you,holding you tight There won't be no morning light Everywhere I turn I see your face
Reminding me of a higher place
Everytime you smile angels cry
Everytime you walk on by I'm not the only feeling lonley
Everytime you walk on by
I try to say something
but end up with nothing
everytime you walk on by
everytime you walk on by
I keep my cool I pretend I'm not here Everytime you came too near I'm such a fool 'cause this love is true and, if I don't tell you someone else surely will Everywhere I turn I see your face
Reminding me of a higher place
Everytime you smile angels cry

Everytime you walk on by
I'm not the only feeling lonley
Everytime you walk on by
I try to say something
everytime you walk on by
If I ever see you again
This craziness must find an end I look at you and I promise myself
I'm not the only feeling lonley
I try to say something
everytime you walk on by
I'm not the only feeling lonley

I try to say something
