Momma Sed

Puscifer

Wake up son of mine
Momma got something to tell you
Changes come
Life will have its way
With your pride son
Take it like a man
Hang on son of mine
A storm is blowing up your horizon
Changes come
Keep your dignity
Take the high road
Take it like a man
Listen up son of mine
Momma got something to tell you

All about growing pains
Life will pound away
Where the light don't shine son
Take it like a man
Suck it up son of mine
Thunder blowing up your horizon
Changes come
Keep your dignity
Take the high road
Take it like a man
Momma said life awaits
Like a kidney stone
It's just a broken heart son
This pain will pass away
