

Pleasant As May (Unreleased 1986)

Dolly Parton, Linda Ronstadt & Emmylou Harris

The midsummer sun shines but dim
The fields try in vain to look gay
But when I was happy with him
December was pleasant as May There once was a time he and I
Picked flowers to braid in my hair
And the songbirds would sing a sweet song
Of love that was tender and fair No difference did seasons make when
Our love was as warm as the sun
And it mattered not whether the snow
Or the green grass kissed the fields where we'd run
Now the midsummer sun shines but dim
The fields try in vain to look gay
But when I was happy with him
December was pleasant as May Sweet flowers, sweet birds and sweet songs
Have now lost their sweetness to me
Forever my darling is gone
And forever heartbroken are we
Now the midsummer sun shines but dim
The fields try in vain to look gay
But when I was happy with him
December was pleasant as May The midsummer sun shines but dim
