Acid Rain

Alexis Jordan

Get up!
Get up!Wake up with the fear of living for another day
Tell myself that there's nothing that I can't take
Your strength is the sickness I can't hide
I tried to be invisible to him
Make no noise tip toe through everything
Hell's fury feeds the fear insideIt's like acid rain in a hurricane
Might hear your call to bring me cover
It's a crown of thorns living me torn
Might hear your call to bring me coverWhoa oh ohI made choices that I cannot live with
I regret not choosing you over him
I'm suffocating in this life
Don't know if I can survive this weather
And your turned up with your arms and umbrella
I send a farewell tonightIt's like acid rain in a hurricane
Might hear your call to bring me cover
It's a crown of thorns living me torn
Might hear your call to bring me coverGet up!And though the risk has come I know I can't run into your arms
I know that you will come to save me from harm, from harm, whoa!It's like acid rain in a hurricane Might hear your call to bring me cover (whoa oh oh)
It's a crown of thorns living me torn
Might hear your call to bring me cover, to bring me cover
