

Wasn't That Drunk (W/ Carly Pearce) [Act 2]

Josh Abbott Band

Small talk and old friends
Catching up on how you've been
That smile I missed
Damn, it's good to see you again
I bought you a drink and I asked you to dance
After a couple more rounds, you were holding my hand
Next thing you know, we're closing it down
And we're sharing a cab back to your house I know we were laughing saying whatever happens
We can blame it on the wine when the sun comes up
If you're thinking it's because we were drinking
Well, that don't mean that it don't mean much
'Cause it did and it does
The truth of it is I wasn't that drunk I was tipsy when you kissed me
But that ain't why I kissed you back
I'll be honest, I've wanted to do that, to do that, do that
Oh so long and oh so bad
Then last night, it happened so fast
I'd do it over, I wouldn't think twice
'Cause lying here sober, it still feels right I know we were laughing saying whatever happens
We can blame it on the wine when the sun comes up
If you're thinking it's because we were drinking
Well, that don't mean that it don't mean much
'Cause it did and it does
The truth of it is I wasn't that drunk I want you to know it wasn't just the heat of the moment I know we were laughing saying whatever happens
We can blame it on the wine when the sun comes up
If you're thinking it's because we were drinking
Well, that don't mean that it don't mean much
'Cause it did and it does
And the truth of it is I wasn't that drunk
Oh, I wasn't that drunk

Songwriters

NEIL MEDLEY, EMILY LYNN WEISBAND, MATT MCGINN Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc., Universal Music Publishing Group Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>