Fades Away

Slightly Stoopid

You know when you're right...
so right...
so right...
you write what you say x2
While you wait, and you hope, and you pray everyday you holdin' on.
mmm mmm mmmm...
To the ones in your life that bring blessings to you, and everyone.
uh whoa yeah...
Weather you see...
the ocean, leaves, and rising shores.
mmm mm mmmm...
Weather you need the sun that sits with the one you love...
uh whoa yeah...
(Chourus)
When I see you it fades away, when I see you it fades away, while no words can describe the pain, when you're here and I'm leaving again.
When I see you it fades away, when I see you it fades away, while no words can describe the feelings inside no other word.
I'm telling you that the temperature has got me on the run, so while me moving quick, please whyn't you tell me what I done.
to livin' a life I never really knew before, to havin' a house up on the hill right by the shore.
And while I'm looking for the reasons in the sky, I'm pulling the heavens down if this is what you like.
And while I think about the time when I'm away from you, while we do what we do...
(Chourus)
When I see you it fades away, when I see you it fades away, while no words can describe the pain, when you're here and I'm leaving again.
When I see you it fades away, when I see you it fades away, while no words can describe the feelings inside no other word.
You know when you're right...
so right...
so right...
You know when you're right...
so right...
so right...
you write what you say.
