

Wicked Side

Two Hours Traffic

we can try to resist but everyone's name ends up on the list everyone goes along for the ride and when the devil wears a disguise it's hard to avoid his parking eyes, his bright clothes everyone goes along for the ride we're alive you should celebrate it your wicked side
i've seen everything nice but where is your danger show me that spice
i need it
everyone goes along for the ride you could demonstrate it
your wicked side
you can try to resist everyone's name ends up on the list you and i are the same we take a slice of the pie, a share of the blame tell me you feel the heat of the flame
