

Love Or Prison (Kastellet Mix)

Blonde Redhead

Come in your heart
I know nothing about you
Smiling...like you were
Looking in the mirror
My heart knows it could be happy like a child
Raising your arms to me
Waving to me
Coming back to me In your love I swear
In your love I hide
In your love I see
In your love I dread
In your love I cry
In my life I wait...ask you again Try so hard so that I could sleep without you
Yet you, you keep moving on like lonely parts In your love I swear
In your love I hide
In your love I see
In your love I dread
In your love I cry
In my life I wait...ask you again
