Indiscreet

Common Children

Slither into your room
Stained with weak perfume
A silhouette of smiles
Your criminal profileI'm placing you under
Missing and lost but nearly found
An elegant thunder
The sound of our lives crashing downWe fade away
(I bled for you to stay)
We crawl away
(Creatures dressed in grace)
We hide away
(Freeze ourselves in place)
It was our fate of misery
Your silence burns inside of me
I feel so cold and indiscreetLove sinks in slow decay
When hearts have been betrayed
In the darkest light of sin
Serpents shed their sinPlacing it under
Treasures lost and never found
Is it a wonder
We watch our world come crashing downWe fade away
(I bled for you to stay)
We crawl away
(Creatures dressed in grace)
We hide away
(Freeze ourselves in place)
It was our fate of misery
Your silence burns inside of me
I feel so cold and indiscreetI bleed for you
I crawl for you
I fold myself
And I break in twoI fold myself
And I break in two
I bleed, I crawl
I freeze for youWe fade away
(I bled for you to stay)
We crawl away
(Creatures dressed in grace)
We hide away

(Freeze ourselves in place)
It was our fate of misery
Your silence burns inside of meWe fade away
(I bled for you to stay)
We crawl away
(Creatures dressed in grace)
We hide away
(Freeze ourselves in place)
It was our fate of misery
Your silence burns inside of meI feel so cold and indiscreet
I feel so cold and indiscreet
