

Catâ€™s Chorus

Lush

Drinking
Sitting in a corner smiling to the others
Arriving here we are again.
Talking
Telling all our stories laughing at the things
That we've all been through over all the years
And as the hours pass 'til midnight
We'll sing together in the moonlight
And looking back to when we first met
We seemed so different so many years passed so much time
And we're still here whatever times may come don't ever change
Oh we'll be laughing in the moonlight singing songs 'til midnight bunny,
Kate, & Emma, Maxine and Melissa laughing in the moonlight.
