

Vengeance (the Pact)

Blue Oyster Cult

See them standing in the foothills
Waiting for the kill
On wings of fear the terror sweeps
    Into the city beat
To defend, this is the pact
    But when life's scorned
        And damage's done
To avenge, this is the pact
    On wings of vengeance
        Taarna finds them
        Death for barbarians
To defend, this is the pact
    But when life's scorned
        And damage's done
To avenge, this is the pact
    Flying over the oasis
        She is captured
        And they pull her down
        Feeling pain from the air
Close my eyes and I am there

I feel I'm falling down in a deep dark pit
"Pull him down", the soldier said
    "I'll put an arrow in his head"
But the bird flew off instead
    To save his master
    On his back she fled
        Her time has come
    Riding her bird high in the saddle
She gets her chance to fulfill the pact now
    As their leader swoops from the clouds
        She sticks him with her sword
        Then she throws him down
        The enemy shrivel and die
        The enemy shrivel and die
        To defend, this is the pact
        But when life's scorned
            And damage's done
        To avenge, this is the pact
