Honest

The New Division

You take a fine for another line that you've wasted
No memories happened
Take a drive in another ride while it's raining
You're always so happyCos you're honest all the time
Let my head rest in your armsTake advice from another guy that is wasted
You'll never be happy
Hold him tight when its wrong or right 'cause that's righteous
Supposedly happyCos you're honest all the time
Let my head rest in your arms
