Run

San Cisco

You've got your lovely long hair and you deep sea eyes with nothing much on your mind you're in it for a ride.You said that you only live once you'll give anything a try, you promised me you'll tell the truth now I know that that's a lie yahie.Gave my heart to Isabella, she's bad news but i'm no better.
Gave my heart to isabella, now I wish I never met her.And I can be all that you want baby don't talk talk don't talk, and I can be all that you want baby don't talk talk don't talk.I gravitate to you like you're my moon my moon at sea.
My thoughts drift back to you momentarily.You've never ever been the one chasing me, but you're just having fun girl you've got me on the run.Gave my heart to Isabella,
she's bad news but i'm no better.
Gave my heart to isabella, now I wish I never had met her.And I can be all that you want baby don't talk talk don't talk, and I can be all that you want baby don't talk talk don't talk.I never knew that you wanted me, thats what she said.And I can be all that you want baby don't talk talk don't talk, and I can be all that you want baby don't talk talk don't talk.
And I can be all that you want baby don't talk talk don't talk, and I can be all that you want baby don't talk talk don't taaalk.
