

Are You Serious?

'Til Tuesday

There was a lesson I never learned
Oh, I wouldn't be warned
How many looks does it take
To read your mind, oh, on your face? Are you serious?
(Are you serious?)
Did you think I'd fall in love?
Are you serious?
(Are you serious?)
What were you thinking of? Are you serious?
(Are you serious?)
Are you serious?
Are you serious?
(Are you serious?) Calling you up and over the phone
I hear, "Tell her I'm not at home"
Are you afraid to see me crying
Or is it that you're just too used to lying? Are you serious?
(Are you serious?)
Did you think I'd fall in love?
Are you serious?
(Are you serious?)
What were you thinking of? Are you serious?
(Are you serious?)
Are you serious?
Are you serious? Are you serious?
(Are you serious?)
Did you think I'd fall in love?
Are you serious?
(Are you serious?)
I don't know what you're thinking of Are you serious?
(Are you serious?)
Are you serious?
Are you serious? There's a lesson I'll never learn
Ooh, I wouldn't be warned
I dive in deeper, and you got colder
But I will not cry, oh, one more death comes to love Are you serious?
(Are you serious?)
Did you think I'd fall in love?
Are you serious?
(Are you serious?)

I don't know what you're thinking of Are you serious?
(Are you serious?)
Are you serious?
Are you serious?
